FROM THE EAST

To: The officers, committee members, and members of Liberty Lodge.

Brethren,

I thank each and every one of you for putting your trust in me to carry on the great works of this Lodge.

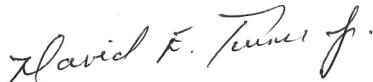

I am looking forward to this Masonic year with great enthusiasm and excitement. I know that each and every one of you are ready to do your part to make Liberty Lodge maintain its position as the "Premier Small Lodge" in Texas.

We have many exciting opportunities to spread Masonry throughout our Lodge, community, city and state. Please look over the calendar of events and plan to attend all of the meetings we have planned for this year. Look over the committees and if you have a particular area of interest please notify the chairman of the committee and ask to participate. I promise you won't be turned down.

All of the officers both elected and appointed have pledged to make this one of the best years in our history.

Together we can make it happen.

Fraternally yours,

David E. Turner, Jr
Worshipful Master

Except for the Standing Committees as defined and described in the By-Laws and at the discretion of the Worshipful Master, one or more of the following committees may be appointed on an ad hoc basis:

BUDGET - FINANCE COMMITTEE

James Weaver, SW
Ray Derrington JW

Richard Shilling, SD
Robert Randolph, JD

This committee is a joint committee, required by our By-Laws to review the books and records of the Treasurer and Secretary and report to the Lodge (Article VI., Section 3) as well as handle any other financial matter (s) which may be referred to them.

The duties of the committee are:

1. Review and audit the financial books and records to the Lodge. The chairman should make every effort to have the audit report ready for presentation to the Lodge by the first meeting in September.
2. The committee should also work to prepare a working budget for the Lodge, including a review of the income and expenditures for the past year. The committee should have the budget prepared for presentation to the Lodge by the last meeting in September, at which time they may make any appropriate recommendations.
3. The committee will work throughout the year in all financial matters concerning the Lodge.

BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

Kemp Newman, 2018
Terry Beasley, 2019
Mike Spears, 2020
Elect June 21, 2017, 2021

Dave Turner, WM
James Weaver, SW
Ray Derrington, JW

This committee is comprised of seven (7) members consisting of the Worshipful Master, Senior and Junior Wardens, and four Master Masons who are elected for four year terms with one term expiring each year. At the second stated meeting in June (Art. 292 GLTx) of each year, the lodge will elect a new member to replace the one whose term expires.

This committee is responsible for maintaining the Lodge Building and the surrounding grounds. The committee has the authority to maintain the building and grounds as long as normal repairs do not exceed $250.00, carry out any emergency repair (s) as the committee may feel is necessary. The committee can make recommendations to the Lodge at any time and is responsible to the Lodge at all times.

COMMUNICATION COMMITTEE

This committee is charged with the duty of contacting as many members of the Lodge as possible to ensure maximum attendance at all Stated Meetings, Called Meetings, Masonic Burial Services, Fund Raising Events as well as practice meetings and Lodge cleaning days.

They should work closely with the Building and Grounds Committee, the Burial Service Committee, and the Degree Work Committee.

BURIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE

Dennis Wiggins, Chairman

This committee performs a very sad, but a very necessary duty. They are called upon to perform Masonic Graveside Services for our deceased Brethren. The committee shall:

1. Compile a list of Brethren who might be available to attend Masonic funerals.
2. Appoint Brethren who have the time and interest to serve as a telephone committee to increase attendance at funerals. The Telephone Committee will assist here.
3. Remember, this committee puts the Lodge on display before the public at a very solemn and stressful time and our reputation as a Fraternity and a Lodge depends on our conduct at these funerals. Those Brethren attending funerals should be thoroughly instructed about the conduct of Masonic funerals and their part in them.

DEGREE WORK COMMITTEE

Dave Turner, WM
James Weaver, SW

Ray Derrington, JW
Richard Shilling,, SD

This committee is very important because it is responsible for all the degree work. The results of the work of this committee cannot be determined on the night of the degree; it is after the degree that we can see the results of the committee's labors. This committee has no chairman and will work closely with the Ritual Instruction Committee to ensure that the Ritual is learned and presented in the manner it deserves. Each member of the committee, however, does have a specific duty and they are as follows:

1. The Junior Warden, shall be responsible for the Entered Apprentice degree. He shall secure a team and make sure a competent Brother is in attendance to deliver the lecture. Except when otherwise directed by the Worshipful Master, he shall close the Entered Apprentice Lodge.
2. The Senior Warden shall be responsible for the Fellow craft degree and the same procedure followed as that above.
3. The Worshipful Master shall be responsible for the Master Mason degree and the same procedure followed as that above.
4. The Senior Deacon shall be responsible for the proper preparation of each candidate. He should take nothing for granted, and in his absence he should appoint a Brother to this duty for him. No candidate should be stopped during the ceremony for adjustments in his preparation. THE MASTER OF CEREMONIES WILL ASSIST, BUT THE SENIOR DEACON IS SOLELY RESPONSIBLE.

RITUAL INSTRUCTION COMMITTEE

John Peebles
W. Mike Spears

Hugh McNeil
Robert Randolph

This committee is probably the backbone of the Lodge because of its charge; to instruct and educate the candidates in the rituals and customs of Freemasonry and to instruct the members in their presentation of the rituals. This committee will be dealing with the future leadership of the Lodge and it is important to recognize future leaders early and encourage their studies. The Lodge will surely suffer if the committee fails to live up to its duties. The committee will be busy and will require assistance. Volunteer to assist in instructions and attend the training sessions to improve your own skills. The committee's duties are:

A. CONCERNING CANDIDATES

1. Make yourself personally acquainted with each candidate. Each Entered Apprentice should be contacted prior to the night of his initiation and our system of instruction, the payment of fees and dues, and his rights and privileges as an E. A. explained to him.
2. Under no circumstances should a candidate appear for instruction and find no one available to instruct him. This is inexcusable. If, in the event instructors cannot attend to perform their duties, they should contact the candidate/pupil. A simple, courteous telephone call could well be the difference between an interested candidate and a poor prospect for our Lodge. We cannot take any chances by being careless and we owe it to the pupil.
3. The chairman of this committee is responsible for accurate instruction at all times. The Grand Laws provide a District Instructor and he may be called on to assist. A Brother well-versed in Masonry should be assigned to work with the candidate until he has taken his Master's proficiency.
4. The chairman shall have a personal knowledge of a Brother's proficiency before he is examined in any degree. Poor examinations from poorly prepared candidates are a disservice to the candidate, to the Lodge, and to Masonry.

5. It shall be the duty of the committee to instruct each newly raised Master Mason in Lodge procedures: courtesy, customs, and laws. New Master Masons should be instructed to study our By-Laws and the Grand Laws; they should be taught voting procedures; parliamentary procedure as it works in Masonic Lodges; and what Lodge officers do and why.

B. CONCERNING RITUAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. The committee will set aside a regular night for study and instruction. This can continue to be our off-Thursday nights, or any evening convenient to the majority of the committee.
2. This committee will assist the Degree Work Committee in assembling Degree Teams and see that the team is prepared in the ritual.
3. The committee will also assist the Lodge Officers in learning the rituals properly.

LODGE OFFICER TRAINING COMMITTEE

Bruce Mintz, Coordinator

This committee works with the Lodge's officers and future officers. A Lodge is no better than its officers and it is necessary that we set standards for our officers and demand that they rise to them. Under a Grand Master's Edict of 1989, all officers-elect are to be proficient in opening and closing all Lodges, as well as be competent in Lodge administration by 1992. The development of this program is one that should be top priority each year. The goals of this committee are:

1. To develop and prepare a training program based on material issued by Grand Lodge, e.g. L. I. F. E. and A.L.L.
2. To regularly schedule meetings for presenting the program to all Lodge officers interested members.
3. To involve all members that show an interest in the program and prepare them to assume future leadership roles.
4. To invite and encourage neighboring Lodges to participate in the program.

WELFARE, SICKNESS AND ARBITRATION COMMITTEE

Glen Cupit, Chaplain

This committee is required by Grand Law and by our Lodge By-Laws. It is the duty of this committee to examine all claims for assistance, visit the sick and determine their needs, and settle all differences between Brethren. A majority of this committee may act at all times with respect to the welfare of our Brethren and our Fraternity, and it is responsible to the Lodge at all times.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE

Richard Shilling, Chairman

This committee is responsible for presenting regular programs to the membership. Any member of the Lodge may be called upon to assist in the presentation of a program. Volunteer your services to the Worshipful Master or suggest topics which you feel would strengthen our Lodge.

ENDOWED MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

E. Bruce Mintz, Chairman

This committee is responsible for administering the Lodge's Endowed Membership Program. An Endowed Membership costs $800.00 and may be purchased on the installment plan. Once an Endowed Membership is issued, the recipient no longer is required to pay annual dues, and the Lodge will receive the benefits of the membership in perpetuity. The committee will solicit membership; account for monies in the fund; issue the proper certification to the Grand Secretary on the type of membership; in memory, in honor, or by the member, himself; see that the program is in compliance with Article 318A at all times.

TEACHERS / STUDENTS COMMITTEE

Dennis Wiggins, Chairman

This committee is responsible for two of Liberty Lodge's most important programs: The E. T. Branch Awards for Teaching Excellence and the Liberty Masonic Lodge Memorial Scholarship presented to a graduating Senior from Liberty High School and Hardin High School. This committee's responsibilities include:

1. Communicating with school officials to assure that the names of the recipients of the Branch Awards and the Liberty Masonic Lodge Memorial Scholarship Award are made available to the Chairman in time to have the plaques and/or checks prepared.
2. That the winner's names are inscribed on the appropriate plaque or check.
3. That the Branch Awards Dinner is coordinated with the Master's calendar and set for the first stated meeting in March during the period of Public School week.

4. That the Scholarship winner(s) receives his/her Scholarship Documents during the Senior Awards Ceremonies at Liberty and Hardin High School.
5. That the Scholarship Fund be administered in a sound accounting method.
6. That both programs be adequately publicized in local news papers and radio stations.

FUND RAISING

This committee will determine, after meeting with the Budget and Finance and Building and Grounds committee, whether there are any potential budget shortfalls and whether there are any potential problems which may arise after the budget process is completed. If such problems are found, the committee will devise a program and/or fund raising event, with complete cost analysis and net proceeds projected, for action by the lodge. This committee will communicate with other lodges and explore fresh avenues for generating additional revenue for the lodge. In addition the committee will gladly receive suggestions for consideration.

HISTORICAL HONORS COMMITTEE

Liberty Lodge has a proud and time-honored history of accomplishment in the community and this fact can be used as a departure point for many worthwhile projects and programs.

We've recently seen how valuable our past has been in promoting the present through the Branch Awards and the Historical Marker Dedications. We can extend this further. This committee's goals are:

1. To locate the grave site of all Charter Members and see that they are properly marked.
2. Investigate the history of the Lodge through the Sam Houston Regional Library and the Grand Lodge Library for a possible History of Liberty Lodge Pamphlet, for Lodge programs, news articles, etc.
3. See that the gravesites of all deceased Brethren buried in Liberty County are marked and maintained on an annual basis, if necessary.
4. Any other project which the committee feels is viable and the Lodge approves.

MASONIC PROMOTIONS AND PUBLIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE

This committee will see that our Noble Fraternity's purposes and goals, as well as its historical development, is brought before the public in a dignified and well-informed fashion, in keeping with the requirements of the Grand Lodge's Committee on Public Relations mandates. It shall work closely with the Fund Raising Committee and see that the Lodge's activities are promoted through carefully placed press releases and media contacts.

MASONIC WIDOWS INTEREST COMMITTEE

One of Masonry's finest traditions, and one which all Masons are obligated to honor, is the special relationship the Lodge maintains with the Widows of its Brethren. This committee, with the approval and assistance of the Lodge, shall:

1. See that fruit baskets are purchased, prepared and delivered prior to Christmas to each Masonic Widow.
2. See that each Widow is personally notified of the annual Widows Night Dinner and that she is encouraged to attend. And if special accommodations such as travel is requested that it be provided.
3. Notify the Worshipful Master of any Widow who does not have a Widow's Pen so that he might present her with one at the next annual dinner.
4. See that each Widow receives a monthly telephone call from a member of the Lodge.
5. See that each Widow receives an annual birthday card and telephone greeting.
6. Determine any special need(s) the Widow may have and how the Lodge may offer assistance.
